The lecture of Rev. D. E. Frierson, D. D. in Temperance Hall on Tuesday night, under auspices of the Ladies Sewing Society of the Baptist Church, on the subject of "The Phisiology of the Leaf," was a rare treat, and was much enjoyed by those present.

At the last regular communication of Hiram Lodge No. 68, A. F. M., the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing Masonic year: R. F. Divver, W. M.; J. J. Baker, S. W.; J. A. Daniels, J. W.; J. A. Brock, Treasurer; W. L. Bolt, S. retary.

The Council met as usual on Tuesday evening and after disposing of several parties charged with disorderly conduct and passing several accounts, possed a resolution to conter with the Board of Trade in reference to selling the Hanks' Ferry of Savannah River.

An accommodation train will hereafter be run three times a week between this place and Belton—on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays—as follows: Leave Belton at 10 a. m. and arrive at Anderson at 10.40 a. m.; leave Anderson at 4.40 p. m. and arrive at Belton at 5.20 p. m.

Rev. W. H. Strickland, pastor of the Baptist Church, has declined the call of the State Baptist Convention to the secretaryship and general agency of its State Mission Board, and will remain in his present charge. His announcement to this effect at the conclusion of his sermon on Sunday morning last was received with universal pleasure by his congregation.

An attempt at burglary was made on the store-house of Mr. G. W. McGee, at Belton, at an early hour on last flaturday night. The burglars succeeded in breaking through the window blinds and raising the sash, but from some cause, perhaps an alarm from the telegragh, did not enter the building, but hastily made their escape. It is hoped the guilty parties will be found and punished.

Rev. W. H. Strickland, at the request of the Ladies Sewing Society of the Baptist Church, will deliver a lecture in Temperance Hall on Tuesday night next on the subject of "How to Make a Fortune, or The Dignity of Labor." The lecture has been delivered on two or three important occasions heretofors by its author, and has each time been received with applause. Mr. Strickland is a popular speaker, and underderstands the art of holding the attention and interest of his hearers. Admission ten cents.

Just received on memorandum a complete stock of fine jewelry of every description. Solid silver and silver plated ware, gold and silver watches. I can afford to sell lower than any one else because I can send back all I do not sell. You will confer a favor by coming to see my stock. To get the benefit of low prices and good stock to select from, come before the 26th December.

† J. A. DANIELS, Masonic Hall.

A Mr. J. M. Strickland was arrested at the depot on Saturday night for obtaining goods under false pretences. He had been selling goods for Mr. J. E. Peoples on commission, and was attempting to make way with the entire proceeds of a lot recently disposed of. He was on his way to Georgia with his family, and his arrest created quite a sensation about the depot for a short while. He was lodged in jail, but as his relatives satisfied the demands against him on Monday he was released, and has gone on in the direction of the setting sun.

Mr. A. B. Towers, President of the Anderson Educational Association, requests us to say to "Stockholder," whose card appeared in our last issue, that the annual smeeting of the stockholders was appointed to be held in the Court House at the time prescribed by the constitution, and was accordingly published, and that it was the fault of the stockholders and not of himsulf that the meeting was not held, as he was present at the place of meeting at the appointed time, and waited one hour for the stockholders to assemble,

The preliminary trial of Mesars, J. M. Gambrell, Wm. M. Ragsdale, J. Francis Ragsdale, J. Harvey Hannock and Augustus W. Poore, charged with burning the store of Maj. George W. Anderson in Williamston some time ago, was had before Trial Justice Whitefield at this place on last Saturday. Mesars, James I Orr and H. G. Soudday represented the State and Messes. John E. Breazeale and John B. Moore the prisoners, and after the examination of a number of witnesses on the part of the State and argument by counsel on both sides, the accused were all remanded to jail for trial at the February term of Court, the parties not being allowed bail on account of the crime with which they are charged being a capital offence. The trial was one of considerable interest, and was attended by a large number of the citizens of Williamston and neighborhood.

Mr. James B. Moore and brother, accompanied by their families, have just arrived in town. These people are from Anderson, South Carolina, and have come well provided with everything needed to insure success in a good county like this. They have bought a survey of $000 acres 6 miles north of town, in the beautiful valley of the West Fork. Mr. Moore informs us that should he and his family have good health and like their new home, that he has a large number of friends back at his old home, who will come and cast their lot in Jack county, but will not come until they learn from him in regard to his success, health, etc.—Jack County (Texas) Guids.

County (Texas) Guide.

A colored infant was burried in the Mt. Tabor graveyard, about one mile and a half south of this place, on last Monday night, and the suspicious circumstances connected with its birth and burial led several parties acquainted with the occurrences to believe that there had been foul play on the part of its parents. Trial Justice Whitefield, acting Coroner, accordingly summoned a jury of inquest and proceeded on Wednesday afternoon to the graveyard when the body was exhumed and examined by Dr. T. J. McFall, who certified that the child was still-born. The verdict of the jury was in accordance with the statement of Dr. McFall.

Congressman Aiken has sent us a list of the country mail routes in this County to be let to contractors this winter, but as the most important of these lines have already been published in our columns we will not reproduce them. Speaking of this matter, Col. Aiken says: "These contracts are usually taken up by loafers around here who, despite the law, sub let to men in the South, and fatten like sunfish off the excess paid them by the government over the amount they pay the sub-contractor. If our people would be the prime bidders and secure the contract from first hands it would keep quite a sum of money within the keep quite a sum of money within the
